PROFILE

ABOUT Gaming is an important part of life. For me, it is not only for entertainment; it allows me to have unique experience in an entirely different realm apart from reality. To some extent, it is necessary for maintaining my mental health and wellbeing. Hence, I created this resume of my gaming life.

FOCUS Open World RPGs • Sandbox • Space Simulations • City Simulations

EXPERIENCE

INTRO TO GAMES 2011, SHANGHAI

- First introduced to gaming around 2011; Given a pirate copy of Counter Strike 1.6 and Red Alert 2 from my friend during a data structure course in middle school; Played the game through local network
- Didn't understand a damn thing about data structures back then

ADOLESCENCE 2014-2018, MONTREAL

- Bought the first PC from Kijiji for $80 at 2014; Bought the first graphic card AMD HD6450 from Amazon; Mainly rely on 3DM.com at this time; Started by playing Assassin's Creed and Need For Speed 9
- Later upgraded the graphics card to an AMD HD7750
- Started to play some more sophisticated RPG games: Skyrim, Fallout 4, GTA V, Watchdogs
- Started to develop an interest in simulations and strategies: Cities Skylines, Kerbal Space Program
- Played some famous visual novels: DDLC, Steins Gate

UNIVERSITY YEARS 2019-PRESENT, TORONTO

- Started to use a PC dedicated for gaming since late 2019; Started to buy genuine copies on Steam, including games I pirated in the past; Developed an interest in JRPGs through NieR Automata
- Spent my week of finals playing Civilization VI instead of studying
- Dropped multivariable calculus and dedicated an entire summer on Final Fantasy XIV
- Currently playing Genshin Impact and Dyson Sphere Program
